CITY OF EDINBURGH AND MIDLOTHIAN RIFLE ASSOCIATION.

The annual meeting and competition under the auspices of this association has taken place during the present week. There was a large gathering of rifle shooters from all parts of the country, and the shooting generally was creditable. The largest score which was made at this meeting, and which has been very seldom equalled with the Government rifle, was achieved on Wednesday by Sergeant-Major Baker of the Staff, Edinburgh, who scored 27 points at the 200 yards range out of a possible score of 28 points. The match which was made to take place at this meeting between the teams of the north, west, and south was so far discouraged that only the north and south competed, and the north carried off the honours by a majority of ten shots. The highest possible score was 56, and each team had a member who scored 44. No competitor in either team missed at the 200 yards range, and four in each team had no misses at either range. Amongst the contingent from Renfrewshire the following were amongst the prizewinners:—

On Monday Sergeant Clows, 3d Ren'r w, tied with six others, in competition No. 3, for the 3d, 4th, and 5th Prizes.

Sergeant Clows likewise tied with six others at the 500 yards range in the same competition.

On Tuesday Captain Hamilton Bogert gained a splendid drawing room clock, valued at £15 15s, being the 1st prize of the "Atchison" and other prizes. Sergeant Ilse, 1st Renfrew, tied at 24 points with others for 9 prizes in the same competition.

Corporal Caldwell and Sergeant Rae, 1st Renfrew, tied with 4 others for the first 6 prizes in competition No 9—Second Series.

On Wednesday Sergeant Rae, 1st Renfrew, and M. Cranford, 3d Renfrew, tied with some others for six of the Edinburgh Brewers' prizes.

Sergeant M. Caldwell, Greenock, gained the 2d of the Aberdeen Silver Medals (9 points); and Sergeant Rae tied with six others for the six next prizes in the same competition.

Sergeant Rae, and J. Ingram, 3d Renfrew, tied with a number of others for four prizes in the special Extra Competition.

On Thursday the Caledonian challenge shield was competed for and we are glad to record that Col. Sergeant Clows of the 3d Renfrew was the Victor. Towards the conclusion of the match the excitement as to the result became very intense. Early in the day two gentlemen had made each a score of 30 points, and when Col. Sergeant Clows, Queen's Cow, of the Highland Volunteers Edinburgh, was shooting off his last round at the 600 yard range. On that shot depended as many supposed, the result of the match. The shot was good one, and he had 30 points, and according to the mode of reckoning the best score. The Highlanders, who were watching his shooting with the attention, however very demonstrative at the result, and seizing hold of Mr Cow carried him shoulder high to the reformed tent, and while they were regaling themselves Colour-Sergeant Clows, of the 3d Renfrew, was finishing his shooting. He had made a score of the 29th and 500 range, and when at the 600 range he managed to shoot so as to make a total score of 58 points, which counted better than any of the others. He was then carried to the refreshment tent by a body of his admirers. Another score of 30 was made by Private Rennelle, 1st Lanark, but it was not so good as the others. The second competitive receives a gold medal, in addition to the shield the gold St. Andrew's Cross of the Association and a gold watch. Sergeant Rae, 1st Renfrew, Captain Hodgart, 44; Private Rutherglen, 2d Renfrew, 43; Captain Pavie, 3d Renfrew, 43; and Ensign W. S. Smith, 3d Renfrew, 42; in the same competition.

In the competition for the President's Prize Sergeant Clows tied with other 11 for the 3d to the 14th prize, and Corporal Caldwell with other 12 for the 2d prize to the 29th prize.

Sergeant Clows was likewise at the top of the list in the competition for the Curtiss & Harvey Prizes—Second series.

TRUE ECONOMY.

GENTLEMEN who have a preference for the Higher Qualities of Clothing would do well to pay us a visit. Mr. HUNTER has returned from London, where he has personally selected Goods suitable for the Season. He has picked out the very best things from the Stocks of the most celebrated English and Continental Manufacturers in Coatings and Trimmings, and we are warranted in saying that in all respects they are the best Goods made. In recommending Cloths cheap at Clothing we do so not because it yields as a larger profit (for the reverse is the fact), but because we have found that it seldom fails to give greater satisfaction to the Purchaser. Every article is guaranteed, and where any larger the Price may appear, the best Goods bought at a Bargain Price may be accepted as a means, embodying the very essence of True Economy.
