WOMEN TO THE RESCUE.

The Lady Grocer

BEFORE the war we had 1,000 women in our employ, mainly engaged in clerical work. To-day we have nearly 3,000, and they not only do duty at the desk, but at the counter too, and all praise is due to them for the manner in which they have shouldered the extra burden.

Their assistance has enabled us to release nearly 2,000 men for the army.

Despite this enormous upheaval in our organisation, we are still able to satisfy our customers—a most ample tribute to the Lady Grocer.
