Sugar Distribution to our Regular Customers.

After December 30th, 1917, Sugar will be distributed to the Public in accordance with the Rules of the Food Controller.

A card will be issued to each Householder by the Local Food Committee, and supplies will only be obtainable by the holders of such cards.

We shall give full and detailed information to our customers during September and the following months, as to the steps necessary to secure their official cards, but it will help to make this scheme a success if all our customers will register their names and addresses at the local branch NOW.
